

Expression of interest: Head Grower

Set in the beautiful Chew valley, the Community Farm is a pioneering community owned social enterprise that began in 2011. Our mission is to grow and sell locally produced organic food to the surrounding community and to actively engage with that community to reconnect people to the land and the source of the food they eat.

The Community Farm will be seeking an experienced Head Grower in Spring 2015

Essential skills

- Experience of growing organic vegetables on a commercial scale
- Able to lead an experienced field team.
- Able to manage a budget with efficiency and control
- Stamina to cope with the rigors of a busy growing environment
- A keen interest in and knowledge of the aims and objectives of The Community Farm.
- A commitment to our work with community engagement and volunteers
- Good knowledge and understanding of all health and safety and hygiene regulations
- Experience of Soli Association standards
- A good team player – collaborative working is key to this role

This is an EOI, so there will not be formal interviews for these roles at this stage. However, anyone who registers an interest will be sent details of the job description when advertised. Please register interest at farming@thecommunityfarm.co.uk
